

To Dorothy

John Horn
Map - Recollection of San Diego Chinatown during 1930s - 1940s

NORTH

Street car line

5th

Island

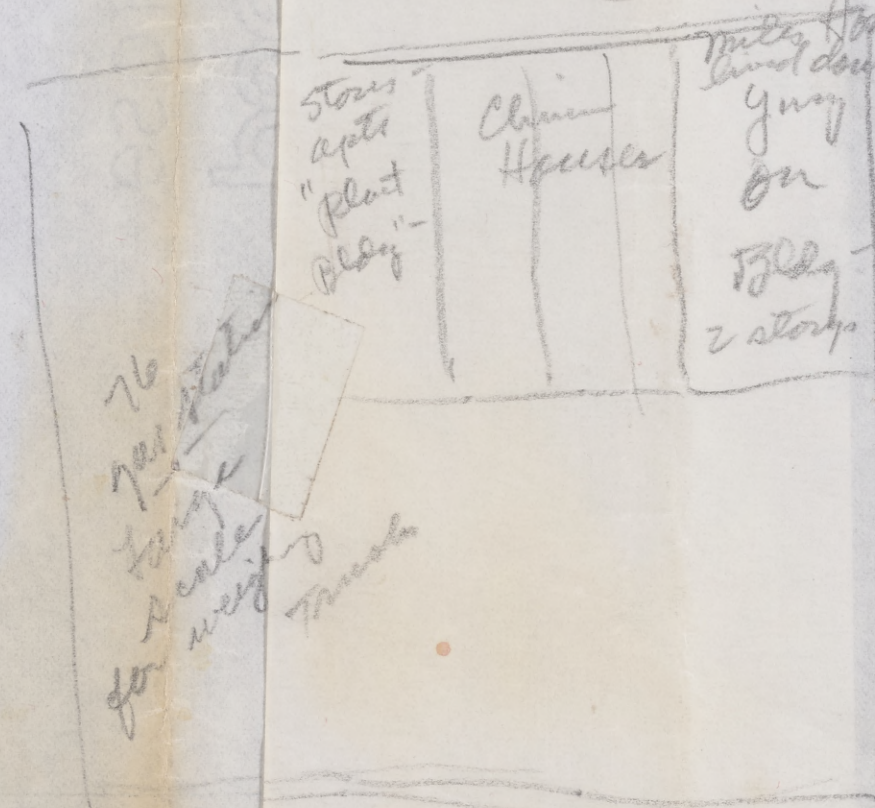

4th

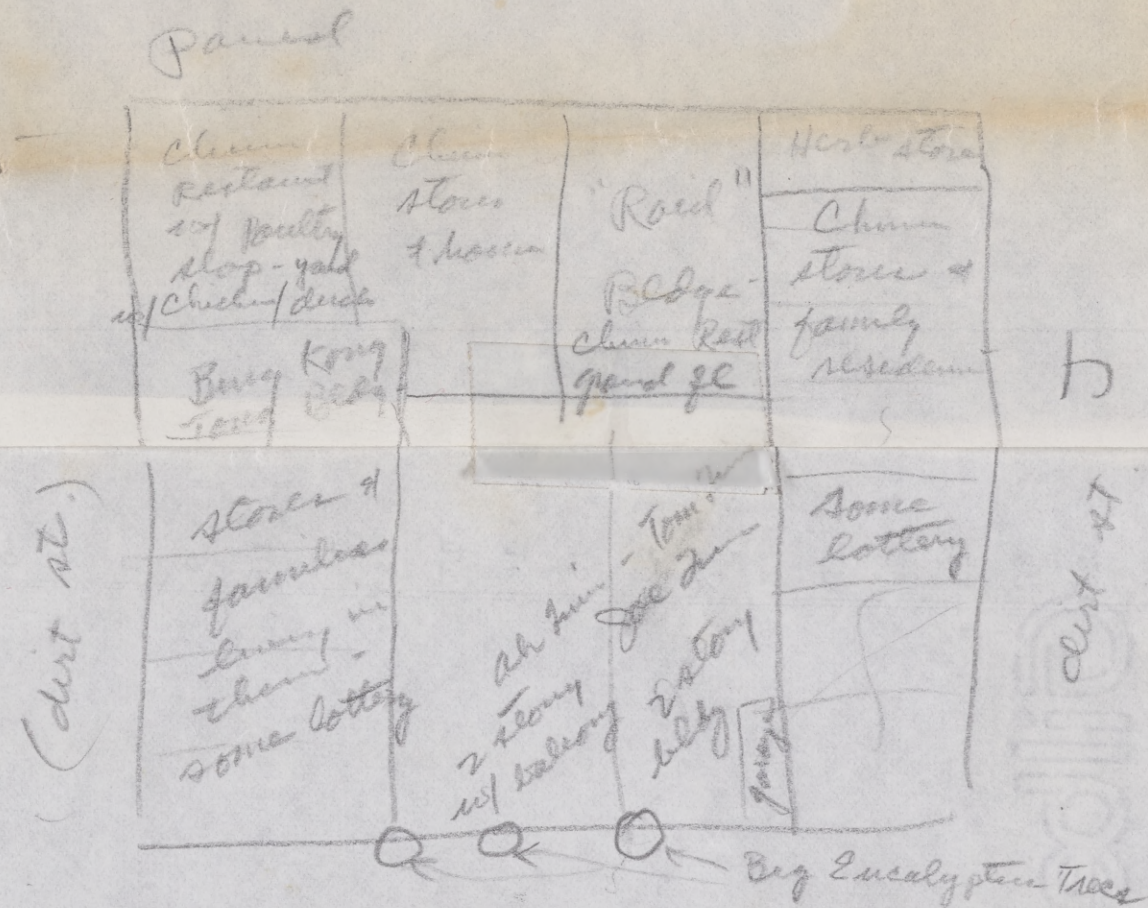

3rd (Paved)

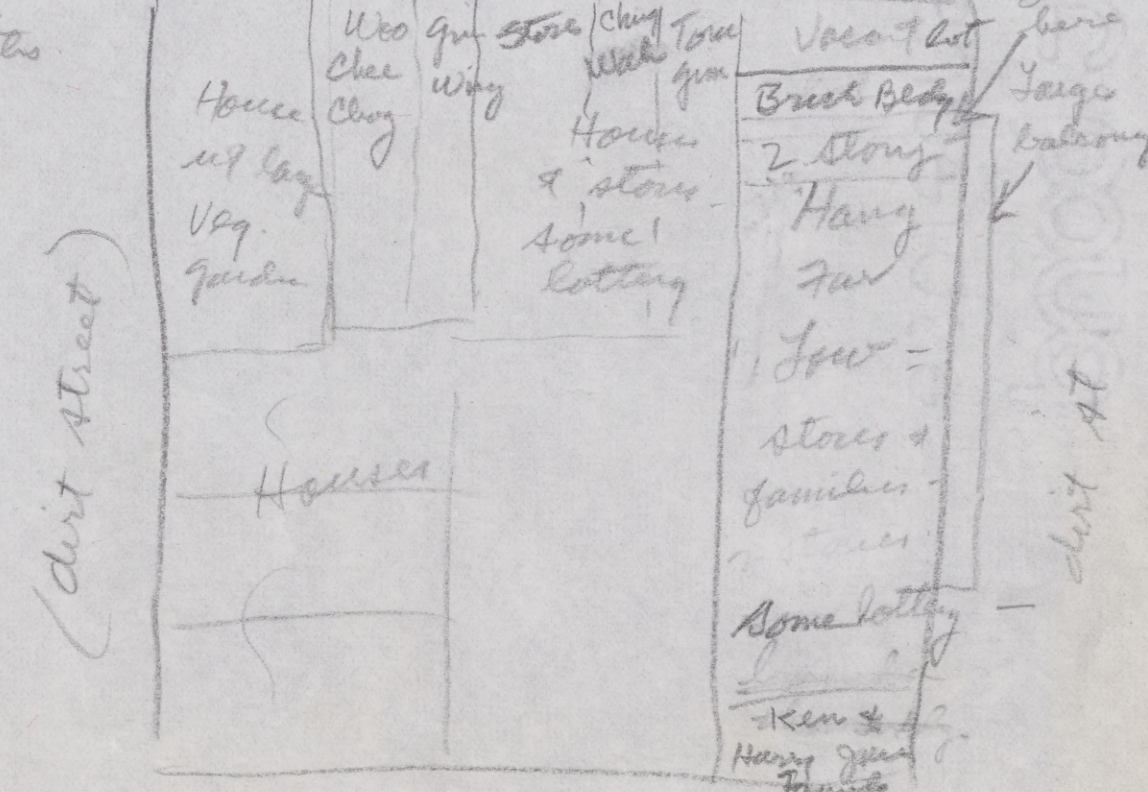

Market

(dirt street)

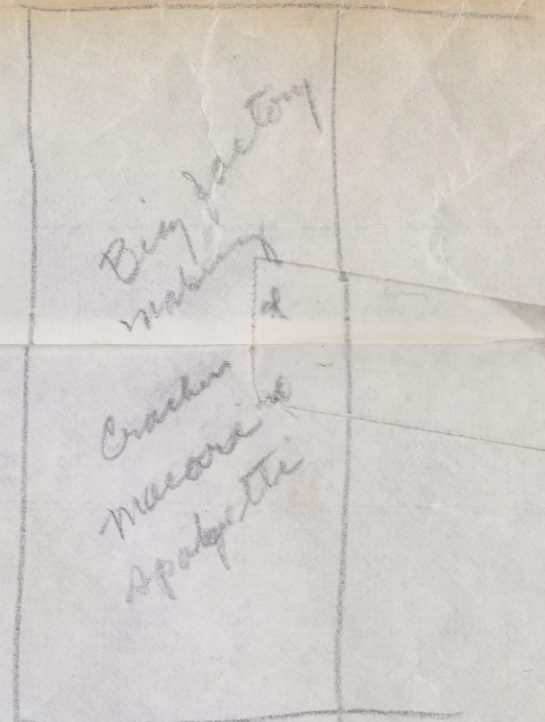

Some Wood plank walks - this side of street. No

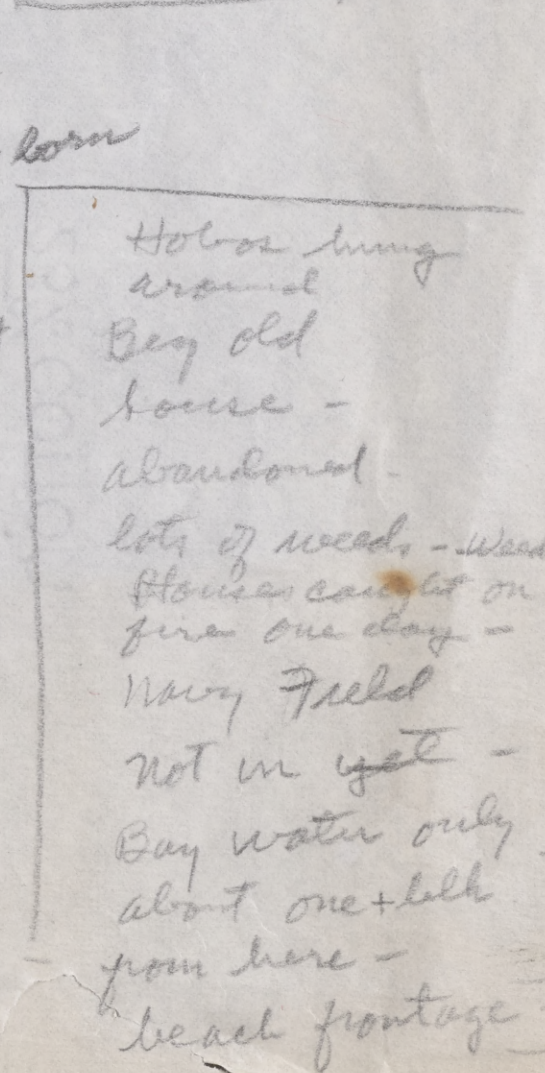

(dirt street)

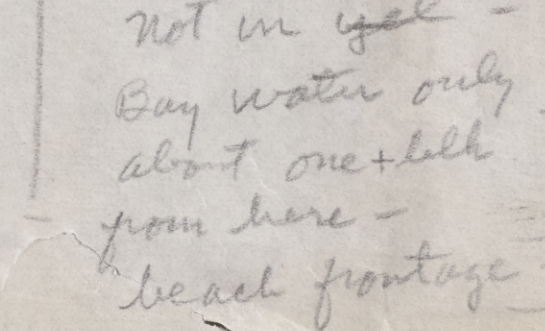

1930s & 1940s
In early 1942, during the WWII, the Japanese had to leave SD. to Relocation Camps. Their stores, apts, etc. were partly taken over by the large migration of Blacks from the South
many to work in the defense industries

(dirt st.)

(dirt st.)

(dirt st.)